Object of the association A:LL Schrëftsteller*innen according to article 2 of its statutes

The purpose of the Association is to bring together and represent writers from and in Luxembourg who have a regular activity and a significant or developing professional career.

To this end, it provides a forum for meetings and exchanges between members, works to protect and improve the status and working conditions of writers, as well as to defend their social rights and their material, legal and moral interests, and takes a stand on topical issues relating to the profession of writer, literary translation and the book sector in general.

In the pursuit of its mission, the Association proposes to cooperate with private and/or public, national, European and/or international institutions dedicated to similar objectives.

The Association and its members undertake to promote and adhere to humanistic values.

The Association may create conditions and events to promote writing and literature and organise events related to its objectives as well as actions to raise the necessary funds to carry out its activities. It may involve voluntary and paid staff as well as other private or public associations and organisations in its activities.
